

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

ADMINISTRATIVE ISSUANCE SYSTEM

Mayor's Order 2008-20

January 31, 2008

SUBJECT: Final Action on Reorganization and Rightsizing of District of Columbia Public Schools

ORIGINATING AGENCY: Office of the Mayor

On November 28, 2007, the Mayor and the Chancellor of the District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) announced a proposed plan to close and/or consolidate school programs and buildings through a reorganization and rightsizing plan, pursuant to Title 5 (Board of Education), Section 3607 of the D.C. Municipal Regulations. In order to provide high-quality, innovative, and rigorous educational opportunities to all DCPS students, the DCPS school system must be reorganized to meet its current needs. Most DCPS schools are under-enrolled. The inefficiencies of managing the administration, staffing, and facilities in underutilized schools limit DCPS's ability to offer a full and comprehensive curriculum, programs, services, and opportunities for all of its students. By rightsizing the school system, either through closing, consolidating, or realigning schools and programs, DCPS will be able to offer parents and students rich, quality educational opportunities across the city. By more efficiently utilizing existing resources, the District can ensure that these resources and investments have the greatest impact on increasing student achievement.

Complete details of the proposal, including supporting criteria, findings, and recommendations, were posted online at <http://www.k12.dc.us/rrr/rrr.htm> and at <http://edreform.dc.gov>. The Chancellor held nine community dialogues throughout the District in December 2007 and January 2008 to explain and solicit input on the proposal. On January 17, 2008, 23 community meetings were held throughout the District to receive input and comment from the public on the proposal. An estimated 1,560 people attended the community dialogues and the community meetings. Notes of public comments were taken at each of the community dialogues and community meetings. Such notes have been reviewed by the Chancellor and Deputy Mayor for Education. The Mayor has been fully briefed on the community dialogues and community meetings. The Chancellor attended the entirety of a 14-hour District of Columbia Council hearing on the proposal on January 14, 2008 and heard all testimony presented at that hearing. In addition, the Mayor, the Chancellor, and the Deputy Mayor have received and reviewed numerous individual comments submitted by mail and/or e-mail.

After careful consideration, and after consultation with the Chancellor and Deputy Mayor, and by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the District of Columbia by section 422(6) and (11) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act of 1973, as amended, 87 Stat. 790, Pub. L. 93-198, D.C. Official Code sec. 1-204.22(6) and (11) (2007 Supp.), and Title I of the Public Education Reform Amendment Act of 2007 (the "Reform Act"), effective June 12, 2007, D.C. Law 17-9, D.C.
